

Jesus calls His followers to be set apart to extend radical, irrational hospitality.

The Premise:

The arrival of Jesus
signaled the end of the _____ model and the beginning of something entirely _____.

What is the Temple Model?

- Sacred _____
- Sacred _____
- Sacred _____
- Sincere _____

Jesus came to do away with the temple model.
He began something entirely new.

The Jesus Model:

- New _____
- New _____
- New _____
- New _____

The Christian church has a problem. The new movement Jesus started has become blended with the old temple model and as a result we have an approach to Christianity that holds us back as individual Christians and diminishes the effectiveness and influence of the church.

Question: Do you feel guiltier about missing church or mass than mistreating someone?	Question: Do you believe there is a ritual that makes you right with God and removes your responsibility to make restitution to someone you have harmed?

The temple model is _____ centered. +++++ What must I do or believe To make things and keep things Right between God and me?
--

Temple thinking will always lead to _____ and _____.

And that is because it leads with this question:

What exactly must I do to make and keep things right between God and me?

And eventually you've got to move beyond that.

Temple thinking also leads to _____ thinking.

And that kind of thinking produces HYPOCRITES.

Jesus Thinking:

- Love _____
- Love _____
- Love your _____

That is radical, irrational hospitality to God and others.

The Jesus way of the thinking is centered on the _____ beside _____.

Jesus said:

*This is my commandment, that you love one another,
just as I have loved you.*

John 15:12 (NASB)

Apostle Paul said:

The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.

Galatians 5:6 (NIV)

*For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command:
“Love your neighbor as yourself.”*

Galatians 5:14 (NIV)
