

What is Gluttony?

How satisfied do I deserve to be?

C.S. Lewis – Gluttony is the sin of putting our _____ and _____ first and spending too much _____ on any one thing.

- Too much _____
- Too much _____
- Too much _____

Gluttony is a reflection of an attitude that I am not grateful for what I have or I am unsatisfied.

As such, gluttony is actually anything that _____ us spiritually or _____ us from God.

You say I am allowed to do anything. But not everything is good for me. And even though I am allowed to do anything, I will not become the slave to anything. 1 Corinthians 6:12 (NLT)

How do we deal with it?

- We need to pray for _____, not _____.
- We need to _____ our appetite for things of God.

Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love that we may sing for joy and be glad in all our days. Psalm 90:14 (NIV)

In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises. Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone. 2 Peter 1:5–7 (NLT)

The Paradox of Lazy Busy

“Lazy Busy”

- A full schedule endured in a Spiritual haze, _____ interruptions, _____ people in need, driven by a _____ for the next comfort.
- Laziness is less a sin of not doing enough, it is more a sin of failure to focus on what really matters.

Comfortable vs Comfort?

- God is not in the business of making us _____; He is in the business of _____ us.
- Satisfaction is an outgrowth of being _____; contentment comes when we are _____.
- Are you willing to stop doing so much that means so little, so you can spend your time doing less that means so much more?

Risk Takers

For the sake of a child who is dying every 14 seconds due to hunger, I want to risk it all.

For the increasingly marginalized church and the need for it more than ever in our world, I want to risk it all.

For the sake of my family and for the people in my life, I want to risk it all.

For the sake of what matters most, choosing a God-first purposeful life, I want to risk it all.
